SHE WILL AVOID WAR

Official Circles in Madrid Say That Is Spain's Position.

QUIET DAY AT WASHINGTON.

Plans Making For Movement of Troops. Mines Being Placed in Portsmouth Harbor — The Mechanism of a Whitehead Torpedo — American Demand For Gold.

Madrid, March 14.—The view held in official circles is that Spain will not provoke a war, because, if she did, she would find herself isolated, but if America gives the provocation, Spain will not be alone in the struggle.

The general opinion is that in the event of war Spain will not need to attack American territory. It will suffice her to pursue a war of privateering. As America's commerce is sevenfold greater than Spain's, American interests would suffer most. War would be madness, benefiting neither nation, and good sense therefore counsels peace.

El Imparcial says: "The government is momentarily expecting to receive the report of the Spanish commission, which, it is understood, will maintain that the Maine explosion was internal."

"Although the American commission may give another explanation, the government will energetically uphold the Spanish report."

The Spanish torpedo squadron has not left Cadiz.

NOTHING FROM THE COURT.

Warlike Matters Comparatively Quiet at Washington.

Washington, March 14.—Unlike last Sunday, when the published statements of the desire for the recall of General Lee and the protest of the Spanish government against sending war vessels with relief supplies to Cuba, caused much excitement among official circles, yesterday was comparatively quiet. No information bearing on the doings of the court of inquiry on the Maine explosion was received, or any other dispatches calculated to cause conferences between the heads of the various departments.

The naval officials say there will be no difficulty experienced in obtaining all vessels that are desired, as there are hundreds available. Thanks to the careful work of the naval intelligence office the department keeps in close touch with the construction of all craft that could be utilized in the event of hostilities and just now it has a record of 40 such ships of all sizes and classes which will be inspected and examined if their owners desire to part with them.

A number of these are vessels which have been constructed under the subsidy act of congress and are engaged in carrying the mails. The vessels to be examined will include all classes, from liners like the St. Paul, to ocean going tugs, which can be of very material service for a number of purposes.

Perfecting Plans For Movement of Troops.

The government is perfecting its plans to make the movements of troops to the coast defenses, orders for which were issued by the war department last Friday and published at that time.

A conference was held with representatives of the following railroads to arrange for the transportation of light artillerymen and their equipments: The Atlantic Coast line, the Southern railroad, the Seaboard Airline and the Chesapeake and Ohio. It was stated that companies of artillerymen, consisting of about 60 men each, would be transferred from Fortress Monroe to the following points: Fort Caswell, on the Cape Fear river, Georgia; to Tybee, near Savannah; to Fort Morgan, near Mobile, and to Sheridan's Point, on the Potomac.

If life is worth having it is worth taking care of. Recklessness does not pay, either in our work or in our pleasure. When a young man who has been killed while performing some reckless feat on a toboggan or at some other hazardous sport, their sympathy is mixed with surprise that a human being should thus carelessly risk life.

There are thousands of men who are recklessly taking their lives while they go about their common every-day avocations. They over-work, they do not take sufficient time from business or labor to eat, sleep or rest, or to care for their health. Outrained nature throws out danger signals, to which they pay no heed. They suffer from bilious or nervous disorders, from sick headache, giddiness, drowsiness, cold chills, flushings of heat, shortness of breath, blotches on the skin, loss of appetite, uncomfortable sensations in the stomach after meals, loss of sleep, lassitude and trembling sensations. These are the advance symptoms of serious and fatal maladies.

All disorders of this nature are cured by Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It restores the lost appetite, gives sound and refreshing sleep, makes the digestion perfect, the liver active. It purifies the blood and makes it rich with the life-giving elements of the food. It is the great blood-maker and flesh-builder. It makes the body active and the brain keen. It is the best of nerve tonics. Thousands have testified to its merits. No honest dealer will urge upon you a substitute for the little extra profit it may afford.

The man or woman who neglects constipation is gathering in the system a store of disorders that will culminate in some serious and possibly fatal malady. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are a safe, sure, speedy and permanent cure for constipation. One little "Pellet" is a gentle laxative, and two a mild cathartic.

mac. It was stated also that a company would be moved from Fort McHenry, Baltimore, to some point on the Delaware river near Philadelphia. The government wanted, it was declared, the arrangements perfected by today or tomorrow at the latest.

Secretary Long last night made the statement that the matter of the purchase of the two Brazilian ships had not been settled.

At the Washington gun factory there are now in various stages of construction no less than 150 guns of formidable character, on which work is being done night and day with a view to their early completion. No new guns are being started, but the entire efforts of the factory are devoted to furnishing those now under way.

A naval officer said there will be enough of them when finished to constitute a fair armament for probably 30 or more auxiliary cruisers should such a large fleet be found necessary to supplement the regular warships.

The ordering of the Helena and the Bancroft, now on the European station, to the United States will leave Admiral Howell commanding that station with but one vessel, viz: the San Francisco. No explanation for the action is vouchsafed by the officials of the navy department, and Secretary Long when asked yesterday declined to say anything about the step further than that the two ships had been ordered home.

American Demand For Gold.

London, March 14.—The money market has tightened considerably and an advance in the bank rate is mooted. The American demand for gold has exceeded all expectation and in addition to the bar gold, about $400,000 ($2,000,000), in Japanese yen has been bought for New York. This with the withdrawal of eagles, has induced the Bank of England to raise the price of Japanese, French and German gold coins to 75s 5d per ounce.

SENATOR PROCTOR.

He Has Gathered Some Facts That He May Make Public in the Future.

Charlotte, N. C., March 14.—Senator Proctor passed through Charlotte yesterday. He talked freely except on the subjects of Spain and the probability of war. He said that the most gratifying thing he met with on his trip was the splendid conduct and spirit of the southern people. He felt that it was worth the total cost of all preparations for war to demonstrate what a sterling loyal spirit was cherished throughout the south, as he had seen it. He said he had gathered some facts, but did not know just what bearing they might have on the present situation. He would have to find out the situation at home before he could even judge fairly of the knowledge he had gained on the trip.

ELEVEN MEN PERISH.

Bowery Mission in New York City Burned.

New York, March 14.—Eleven men perished by fire in the Bowery Mission yesterday morning. The bodies were recovered, but so disfigured as to make identification in most cases impossible. The only body positively identified is that of John Foran of Stapleton, S. L., a machinist, 28 years old, which was claimed by his two brothers. Another body is thought to be that of William McDermott of Brooklyn, a painter, 28 years old. The register of the lodging-house does not aid in the investigation, for Bowery lodgers as often as not register under assumed names. Again, such lodgers are often friendly and leave none to miss them and search for them.

The Gran Republic Burned.

St. Louis, March 14.—From a fire, the origin of which is unknown, the well known Mississippi river excursion steamer Grand Republic burned to the water's edge at the mouth of the river Des Peres, near South St. Louis. Nothing was saved, and Captain W. H. Thorpe, his wife and two children and the watchman had a narrow and thrilling escape from death. The loss amounts to $50,000.

DEFENDED HER GOLD.

Aged Mrs. Meyers Successfully Battles With a Robber.

Toledo, O., March 14.—Mrs. Rachael Meyers, aged 75 years, who lives alone in this city, had a desperate fight with a thief last Saturday. The man entered the house and seized the old lady by the throat. She fought desperately and pushed the robber aside, screaming for assistance. The ruffian forced her back into a room and tried to apply a handkerchief saturated with chloroform, but Mrs. Meyers fought him off. The robber then tried to beat her brains out with a club. She ward off the blows and kept up her screaming until a passing policeman heard her and rushed into the house. The robber escaped. Mrs. Meyers' throat and face were terribly gashed and cut. She asked two officers to open a trunk, and in it was found $3,000 in gold, which the robber was trying to reach.

DOLE IS HEARD FROM

President of the Hawaiian Republic Talks About His Visit.

PLEASED WITH HIS RECEPTION.

When Excitement Over the Maine Disaster Has Quieted Down He Thinks the Question of Annexation Will Be Paramount In Congress—Hears of Reed's Opposition.

San Francisco, March 14.—By the steamer China, which arrived yesterday, the following was received under date of Honolulu, March 6:

President Dole returned to Honolulu on the morning of the fourth. After a cabinet meeting, held immediately upon his arrival, he was interviewed by a press reporter. He spoke very frankly on matters pertaining to his mission to Washington.

"Yes, I shall be very glad indeed to tell the people anything I know relative to annexation," said the president.

"The Maine disaster absorbed the attention of the statesmen in Washington previous to my departure for Hawaii. When that has quieted down, I believe Hawaiian annexation will be paramount in congress. When I was in Washington I met many friends of Hawaii. They feel confident that annexation will come. While there was a doubt whether the treaty would secure the required 69 votes in the senate still it was the consensus of opinion that a joint resolution would carry in both houses. I place much reliance in what was told me by senators and congressmen who are fighting for Hawaii, for I know them to be working faithfully and earnestly."

"What is Speaker Reed's attitude?" the president was asked.

"When I was in the American capitol I learned that he always opposed annexation, although he has made no demonstration against the treaty."

"My impression of President McKinley? Well, I will reply that it is extremely favorable. I found him to be an unassuming, frank and sterling man. He seems to have heart and soul in the annexation treaty."

"Our reception was extremely cordial and hospitable. All along the line to and from Washington throngs of people came to see me. We shook hands and in many instances I was obliged to speak briefly from the car platform. It was from these people that I gathered the impression that Uncle Sam's adoption of Hawaii was the popular sentiment throughout the land."

M'KINLEY AND BRYAN.

Their Residences to Be Duplicated at the Omaha Exposition.

Omaha, March 14.—Senator John M. Thurston, chairman of the senate committee on expositions, recently suggested that the McKinley home at Canton be reproduced as the Ohio state building on the grounds of the trans-Mississippi exposition at Omaha. The board managers approved the idea. The building when constructed will be used as a place of reception for Ohioans and it is proposed to exhibit therein many mementoes of the late campaign, avoiding as far as possible anything savoring of partisanship. Noting the action of the board of managers, the friends of William Jennings Bryan lost no time in putting in a proposition for the reproduction of the Bryan homestead at Lincoln and to exhibit therein campaign and other relics of which Mr. Bryan is said to have no less than a carload. Saturday the board of managers unanimously voted authority to the buildings and grounds department to allow the space for such buildings, making a proviso that the exhibits be non-competitive and not for sale.

RICH SILVER STRIKE.

Seven-Inch Vein That Assays 22,000 Ounces to the Ton.

El Paso, Tex., March 14.—Patrick and Thomas A. Kelly, brothers, have struck a 7-inch vein of almost pure sulphide of silver eight miles west of Villa Ahumada, in the state of Chihuahua, Mexico, on the trail to Corralitos, in the Sierra Madre mountains. The ore assays 22,000 ounces. The find has been named the Carolina. Patrick Kelly is ex-city marshal of Leadville, Colo.

Six Hundred For Alaska.

Vancouver, B. C., March 14.—Steamer Ning Chow has sailed for Alaska with 600 passengers and 1,000 tons of freight. Among her passengers were 21 members of the mounted police, 90 Australians and Hon. Alex. Boyle, brother of the Earl of Glasgow, with a party of swell Englishmen.

WIRE WHISPERS.

Kansas City is having a dog show. One $10,000 canine is on exhibition.

Adam Dollt, a wealthy resident of Whitestone, L. I., killed himself by shooting.

Zacharie Topelius, the Swedish poet, historian and litterateur, is dead at Helsinki, Finland.

Andrew Schuller, a San Francisco broker, shot his wife and then killed himself. It is thought the women will die.

The New Haven (Conn.) Athletic club has offered a purse of $5,000 for a 20-round contest between Kid McCoy and Gus Rhulin.

Miss Lillian Kennedy, the actress, was stricken with paralysis in her dressing-room at the close of a performance of "Charlie Girl" at Utica, N. Y.

The body of Carl Dahl was found hanging to the limb of a tree in Bridgeview park, Brooklyn. He had been despondent because of lack of employment.

R. C. Bassick of Bridgeport, Conn., who located the famous Bassick silver mine near Silver Cliff, Colo., died suddenly in the latter city of heart disease.

WHITEHEAD TORPEDO.

Description of This Terrible Engine of War.

Newport, R. I., March 14.—Lieutenant Commander McLean was interviewed at the torpedo station in regard to the report that the Maine had been blown up by a "Newport" torpedo. The commander is authority for the statement that there is no such thing as a "Newport" torpedo.

The Whitehead torpedo, which is the projectile in general use in the United States navy, although the Howell is used to some extent, is an automobile device. In the center of the projectile, which is made in sizes of 16 and 18 feet in length, is a cylinder for the reception of compressed air, which feeds the mechanism in the tail of the torpedo. In front of the cylinder for compressed air is placed the warhead, which usually contains about 230 pounds of gun cotton.

When the torpedo is prepared for action it is placed in a firing tube. This tube being discharged throws the projectile a distance of 15 or 20 feet, and the compressed air in the tank is released and supplies the motive power for the mechanism in the tail. Enough compressed air is stored to carry the torpedo 1,600 or 1,800 yards. When the projectile strikes an object the gun cotton is exploded by detonation by means of a charge of fulminate of mercury in the form of a cap. The force of the discharge of 210 pounds of gun cotton is sufficient to sink a warship.

Mines For Portsmouth Harbor.

Portsmouth, N. H., March 14.—Plans for the placing of submarine mines for Portsmouth harbor have been mapped out, and a large force of men are actively at work near the fortifications. It is claimed, however, that these mines will be of little use, owing to the great depth of water in the river, there being over 10 fathoms in the channel from the entrance at Newcastle to within a short distance of the navyyard. Hundreds of men have visited the navyyard during the last week to enlist, but as there is no enlistment bureau here, valuable men have been lost to the navy.

Telescopes For Heavy Guns.

Cleveland, March 14.—Warner & Swasey of this city are filling a large order for the government for telescopes to be used on heavy guns for sighting purposes. They are also at work on a new model of a range finder, which will be ready for shipment to Fort Monroe, where it will be tested in a few days. The inventor of this device has been here several weeks superintending the construction. The Otis Steel company of this city is also filling a government order for deck plates for cruisers.

Court Works on Sunday.

Havana, March 14.—The court of inquiry did a good deal of work yesterday, examining Ensign Powelson and such divers of the wrecking company as have been investigating the wreck. It is now said these divers have been released from further work of this kind and instructed to pursue their labors under the wrecking contract. The court will have the services of the naval divers as heretofore, and, if necessary, can call again upon the civilian divers.

Sympathy With Spain.

Paris, March 14.—The Temps says: "Spain does not deceive herself when she counts upon the sympathies at least latent of European governments, but it would be a mistake for her to expect any effectual support from either Great Britain or the triple alliance. Before all she must rely upon herself."

Orders To Push Work.

Bethlehem, Pa., March 14.—The Bethlehem Iron company has received orders to push all government work as yet unfinished on the 100 10 and 12-inch guns and carriages, and the force of skilled mechanics in all departments is working night and day.

LEGISLATORS WARNED.

Governor Pingree Says He Law Against Accepting Purses Will Be Enforced.

Detroit, March 14.—In view of the extra session of the Michigan legislature called by the governor to assemble next week to consider measures for increasing the taxes upon railroads, Governor Pingree has issued a proclamation warning members of the legislature and state officers against accepting purses.

The governor quotes state laws making offering or acceptance of such gifts with intent to influence official acts punishable by heavy fines and imprisonment. He adds that violations of these statutes have been so common that he intends to do his utmost to have them enforced. The governor inveighs against acceptance of reduced rates of fare even by clergymen, because, he alleges, it lessens the revenue derived by the school fund from taxation of railroad earnings.

DEAD IN A DITCH.

Body of Thomas Walsh, a Wholesale Grocer of Joliet, Ill.

Joliet, Ill., March 14.—The body of Thomas Walsh of the large wholesale groceryhouse of Walsh & Sons was found dead in a ditch near this city yesterday. Marks on the head indicated that the man had been murdered and it is believed by his relatives, that robbery was the motive. The police believe that Mr. Walsh was dragged and carried to some lonely spot where his body was found and murdered. No arrests have been made.

Her Majesty's Physician Dead.

London, March 14.—Sir Richard Quain, bart, physician extraordinary to her majesty, president of the general medical council, and editor of "The Dictionary of Medicine" is dead. He was born Oct. 23, 1816, was a fellow of several learned societies and the author of numerous medical and scientific works.

MESSAGE FROM THE DEAD.

Elkhart County (Ind.) Girl's Disappearance Solved.

Elkhart, Ind., March 14.—Miss Cora Brant, who disappeared from her home in Elkhart county, east of here, some days ago, is now believed to have drowned herself. Ira Lyons found a bottle in Lake Michigan, near Benton Harbor, containing the following message, poorly written upon a leaf torn from a memorandum book:

I have drowned myself in the lake over by the pier. Tell my father he can never see me again. My miseries are forever over.

Officer Crawford compared the writing with that of the missing Miss Brant and found it bore a striking similarity. Search is being made for the body.

OF UNSOUND MIND.

Judge Fox Decides That Jonathan Roberts Should Have a Guardian's Care.

Richmond, Ind., March 14.—The sanity inquest upon Jonathan Roberts took place Saturday. It was charged that the old Quaker, who is nearly 90 years old, was squandering his fortune on young girls. His son certified that in six years his father had expended about $20,000, and at least $15,000 of this amount was used to buy dresses, furniture, jewelry, flowers, etc., for his young women friends. Judge Fox decided that the defendant is of unsound mind, and will appoint a guardian for him without delay.

DESONDENT FATHER.

Poisons Himself and Four Children and None of Them May Recover.

English, Ind., March 14.—Emile Devan tried to kill himself and his four children by administering laudanum. All are in a precarious condition. Although a physician, hurriedly summoned, exerted all medical skill he announced that his patients would hardly recover. Mrs. Devan died nearly a year ago, and since then Mr. Devan has brooded over his affliction until it is thought his mind became unbalanced.

Captain Peters Dead.

New Albany, Ind., March 14.—Captain Jonathan Peters of the New Albany Ledger died Saturday night from the effects of a paralytic stroke, which he had about three years ago. He was born in Washington county 64 years ago. He served in the Union army during the war. He was a member of the New Albany commandery, Knights Templars, and of the Knights of Pythias.

Teachers of Northern Indiana.

Kokomo, March 14.—The sixteenth annual meeting of the Northern Indiana Teachers' association, to be held in this city March 31 and April 1 and 2, will probably eclipse all former annual gatherings of the association. The local committee has already received assurances that more than 2,000 teachers will be present.

Sold Town Bonds.

Morristown, Ind., March 14.—The town board has sold $3,000 worth of bonds to a Cleveland firm. These bonds are 10-year 6 per cent bonds, and brought a premium of $207. This places the bonded indebtedness of the town at only $700 below the 2 per cent limit. The money is to be used to complete the street improvements begun last spring.

Mrs. Westerfield Dead.

Anderson, Ind., March 14.—Mrs. Westerfield, wife of the late Dr. W. Westerfield, president of the Indiana spiritualists, and known as the father of western spiritualism, died at her home in this city last Saturday. She was widely known as the "Mother of Western Spiritualism."

Probably Fatally Shot.

Sheboygan, Ind., March 14.—Alonzo Barrett shot and probably fatally wounded Edward Skotski here Saturday as a result of an old dispute. Two bullets passed over the Skotski's body near the heart. Barrett gave himself up and went to jail.

Bought a Bank.

Rochester, Ind., March 14.—Bryer Bros., extensive poultry packers and dairy dealers of Wabash, have purchased the entire capital stock of the Citizens' State bank here and will at once reorganize the institution as the State Bank of Indiana.

Blue River Park Is No More.

Morristown, Ind., March 14.—The Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton Railroad company is tearing down the buildings at Blue River park and will move them to Connersville, where a new park will be established.

Famous Peach Orchard Sold.

Jeffersonville, Ind., March 14.—The famous peach orchard of the Dean brothers, containing over 100,000 trees, has been sold at sheriff's sale. The price paid was $1,983.

Royal makes the food pure, wholesome and delicious.

MAINE AVENGERS.

Company of Young Ladies Organized at Nicholasville, Ky., For Military Duty.

Nicholasville, Ky., March 15.—A military company consisting entirely of girls of the Jessamine institute and this town has been formed here and will offer its services to the United States government the instant war with Spain is declared. They are willing to do whatever service is demanded of them, whether it be to shoulder rifles and do picket duty, to act as spies or to do duty as nurses. All they demand is that they be regularly enrolled and attached to some division and regiment of the army just as a company of men would be. They call themselves the "Maine Avengers."

ELEVEN MEN PERISH.

Bowery Mission in New York City Burned.

New York, March 14.—Eleven men perished by fire in the Bowery Mission yesterday morning. The bodies were recovered, but so disfigured as to make identification in most cases impossible. The only body positively identified is that of John Foran of Stapleton, S. I., a machinist, 28 years old, which was claimed by his two brothers. Another body is thought to be that of William McDermott of Brooklyn, a painter, 28 years old. The register of the lodging-house does not aid in the investigation, for Bowery lodgers as often as not register under assumed names. Again, such lodgers are often friendless and leave none to miss them and search for them.

The Grand Republic Burned.

St. Louis, March 14.—From a fire, the origin of which is unknown, the well known Mississippi river excursion steamer Grand Republic burned to the water's edge at the mouth of the river Des Peres, near South St. Louis. Nothing was saved, and Captain W. H. Thorwag, his wife and two children and the watchman had a narrow and thrilling escape from death. The loss amounts to $50,000.

DEFENDED HER GOLD.

Aged Mrs. Meyers Successfully Battles With a Robber.

Toledo, O., March 14.—Mrs. Rachael Meyers, aged 75 years, who lives alone in this city, had a desperate fight with a thief last Saturday. The man entered the house and seized the old lady by the throat. She fought desperately and pushed the robber aside, screaming for assistance. The ruffian forced her back into a room and tried to apply a handkerchief saturated with chloroform, but Mrs. Meyers fought him off. The robber then tried to beat her brains out with a club. She warded off the blows and kept up her screaming until a passing policeman heard her and rushed into the house. The robber escaped. Mrs. Meyers' throat and face were terribly gashed and cut. She asked the officer to open a trunk, and in it was found $3,000 in gold, which the robber was trying to reach.

DOLE IS HEARD FROM

President of the Hawaiian Republic Talks About His Visit.

PLEASED WITH HIS RECEPTION.

When Excitement Over the Maine Disaster Has Quieted Down He Thinks the Question of Annexation Will Be Paramount in Congress—Hears of Reed's Opposition.

San Francisco, March 14.—By the steamer China, which arrived yesterday, the following was received under date of Honolulu, March 6:

President Dole returned to Honolulu on the morning of the fourth. After a cabinet meeting, held immediately upon his arrival, he was interviewed by a press reporter. He spoke very frankly on matters pertaining to his mission to Washington.

"Yes, I shall be very glad indeed to tell the people anything I know relative to annexation," said the president.

"The Maine disaster absorbed the attention of the statesmen in Washington previous to my departure for Hawaii. When that has quieted down, I believe Hawaiian annexation will be paramount in congress. When I was in Washington I met many friends of Hawaii. They feel confident that annexation will come. While there was a doubt whether the treaty would secure the required 50 votes in the senate still it was the consensus of opinion that a joint resolution would carry in both houses. I place much reliance in what was told me by senators and congressmen who are fighting for Hawaii, for I know them to be working faithfully and earnestly."

"What is Speaker Reed's attitude?"

"When I was in the American capital I learned that he always opposed annexation, although he has made no demonstration against the treaty."

"My impression of President McKinley? Well, I will reply that it is extremely favorable. I found him to be an unassuming, frank and sterling man. He seems to have heart and soul in the annexation treaty."

"Our reception was extremely cordial and hospitable. All along the line to and from Washington throngs of people came to see me. We shook hands and in many instances I was obliged to speak briefly from the car platform. It was from these people that I gathered the impression that Uncle Sam's adoption of Hawaii was the popular sentiment throughout the land."

MCKINLEY AND BRYAN.

Their Residences to Be Duplicated at the Omaha Exposition.

Omaha, March 14.—Senator John M. Thurston, chairman of the senate committee on expositions, recently suggested that the McKinley home at Canton be reproduced at the Ohio state building on the grounds of the trans-Mississippi exposition at Omaha. The board managers approved the idea. The building when constructed will be used as a place of reception for Ohioans and it is proposed to exhibit therein many mementoes of the late campaign, avoiding as far as possible anything savoring of partisanship. Noting the action of the board of managers, the friends of William Jennings Bryan lost no time in putting in a proposition for the reproduction of the Bryan homestead at Lincoln and to exhibit therein campaign and other relics of which Mr. Bryan is said to have no less than a carload. Saturday the board of managers unanimously voted authority to the buildings and grounds department to allow the space for such buildings, making a proviso that the exhibits be non-competitive and not for sale.

RICH SILVER STRIKE.

El Paso, Tex., March 14.—Patrick and Thomas A. Kelly, brothers, have struck a 7-inch vein of almost pure sulphide of silver eight miles west of Villa Ahumada, in the state of Chihuahua, Mexico, on the trail to Corralitos, in the Sierra Madre mountains. The ore assays 22,000 ounces. The find has been named the Carolina. Patrick Kelly is ex-city marshal of Leadville, Colo.

Zachariah Topolias, the Swedish post, historian and littérateur, is dead at Helsingfors, Finland.

Andrew Schuller, a San Francisco broker, shot his wife and then killed himself. It is thought the women will die.

The New Haven (Conn.) Athletic club has offered a purse of $5,000 for a 20-round contest between Kid McCoy and Gus Ruhlman.

Miss Lillian Kennedy, the actress, was stricken with paralysis in her dressing room at the close of a performance of "Charity Girl" at Utica, N. Y.

The body of Carl Dahl was found hanging to the limb of a tree in Bridgeport park, Brooklyn. He had been despondent because of lack of employment.

K. C. Bessick of Bridgeport, Conn., who located the famous Bessick silver mine near Silver Cliff, Colo., died suddenly in the latter city of heart disease.

WHITEHEAD TORPEDO.

Description of This Terrible Engine of War.

Newport, R. I., March 14.—Lieutenant Commander McLean was interviewed at the torpedo station in regard to the report that the Maine had been blown up by a "Newport" torpedo. The commander is authority for the statement that there is no such thing as a "Newport" torpedo.

The Whitehead torpedo, which is the projectile in general use in the United States navy, although the Howell is used to some extent, is an automobile device. In the center of the projectile, which is made in sizes of 16 and 18 feet in length, is a cylinder for the reception of compressed air, which feeds the mechanism in the tail of the torpedo. In front of the cylinder for compressed air is placed the warhead, which usually contains about 230 pounds of gun cotton.

When the torpedo is prepared for action it is placed in a firing tube. This tube being discharged throws the projectile a distance of 15 or 20 feet, and the compressed air in the tank is released and supplies the motive power for the mechanism in the tail. Enough compressed air is stored to carry the torpedo 1,600 or 1,800 yards. When the projectile strikes an object the gun cotton is exploded by detonation by means of a charge of fulminate of mercury in the form of a cap. The force of the discharge of 210 pounds of gun cotton is sufficient to sink a warship.

Mines For Portsmouth Harbor.

Portsmouth, N. H., March 14.—Plans for the placing of submarine mines for Portsmouth harbor have been mapped out, and a large force of men are actively at work near the fortifications. It is claimed, however, that these mines will be of little use, owing to the great depth of water in the river, there being over 10 fathoms in the channel from the entrance at Newcastle to within a short distance of the navyyard. Hundreds of men have visited the navyyard during the last week to enlist, but there is no enlistment bureau here, valuable men have been lost to the navy.

Telescopes For Heavy Guns.

Cleveland, March 14.—Warner & Swasey of this city are filling a large order for the government for telescopes to be used on heavy guns for sighting purposes. They are also at work on a new model of a range finder, which will be ready for shipment to Fort Monroe, where it will be tested in a few days. The inventor of this device has been here several weeks superintending the construction. The Otis Steel company of this city is also filling a government order for deck plates for cruisers.

Courts Work on Sunday.

Havana, March 14.—The court of inquiry did a good deal of work yesterday, examining Ensign Powelson and such divers of the wrecking company as have been investigating the wreck. It is now said these divers have been released from further work of this kind and instructed to pursue their labors under the wrecking contract. The court will have the services of the naval divers as heretofore, and, if necessary, can call again upon the civilian divers.

Sympathy With Spain.

Paris, March 14.—The Temps says: "Spain does not deceive herself when she counts upon the sympathies at least latent of European governments, but it would be a mistake for her to expect any effectual support from either Great Britain or the triple alliance. Before all she must rely upon herself."

Orders to Push Work.

Bethlehem, Pa., March 14.—The Bethlehem Iron company has received orders to push all government work as yet unfinished on the 100 10 and 12-inch guns and carriages, and the force of skilled mechanics in all departments is working night and day.

LEGISLATORS WARNED.

Governor Pinckney Says the Law Against Accepting Purses Will Be Enforced.

Detroit, March 14.—In view of the extra session of the Michigan legislature called by the governor to assemble next week to consider measures for increasing the taxes upon railroads, Governor Pinckney has issued a proclamation warning members of the legislature and state officers against accepting passes.

The governor quotes state laws making offering or acceptance of such gifts punishable by heavy fines and imprisonment. He adds that violations of these statutes have been so common that he intends to do his utmost to have them enforced. The governor inveighs against acceptance of reduced rates of fare even by clergymen, because, he alleges, it lessens the revenue derived by the school fund from taxation of railroad earnings.

DEAD IN A DITCH.

Body of Thomas Walsh, a Wholesale Grocer of Joliet, Ill.

Joliet, Ill., March 14.—The body of Thomas Walsh of the large wholesale groceryhouse of Walsh & Sons was found dead in a ditch near this city yesterday. Marks on the head indicated that the man had been murdered and it is believed by his relatives, that robbery was the motive. The police believe that Mr. Walsh was drugged and carried to some lonesome spot where his body was found and murdered. No arrests have been made.

MESSAGE FROM THE DEAD.

Elkhart County (Ind.) Girl's Disappearance Solved.

Elkhart, Ind., March 14.—Miss Cora Brant, who disappeared from her home in Elkhart county, east of here, some days ago, is now believed to have drowned herself. Ira Lyons found a bottle in Lake Michigan, near Benton Harbor, containing the following message, poorly written upon a leaf torn from a memorandum book:

"I have drowned myself in the lake over by the pier. Tell my father he can never see me again. My miseries are forever over."

Officer Crawford compared the writing with that of the missing Miss Brant and found it bore a striking similarity. Search is being made for the body.

OF UNSOUND MIND.

Judge Fox Decides That Jonathan Roberts Should Have a Guardian's Care.

Richmond, Ind., March 14.—The sanity inquest upon Jonathan Roberts took place Saturday. It was charged that the old Quaker, who is nearly 90 years old, was squandering his fortune on young girls. His son certified that in six years his father had expended about $20,000, and at least $15,000 of this amount was used to buy dresses, furniture, jewelry, flowers, etc., for his young women friends. Judge Fox decided that the defendant is of unsound mind, and will appoint a guardian for him without delay.

DESPOUNDENT FATHER

Although a physician, hurriedly summoned, exerted all medical skill he announced that his patients would hardly recover. Mrs. Devan died nearly a year ago, and since then Mr. Devan has brooded over his affliction until it is thought his mind became unbalanced.

Captain Peters Dead.

New Albany, Ind., March 14.—Captain Jonathan Peters of the New Albany Ledger died Saturday night from the effects of a paralytic stroke, which he had about three years ago. He was born in Washington county 64 years ago. He served in the Union army during the war. He was a member of the New Albany commandery, Knights Templars, and of the Knights of Pythias.

Teachers of Northern Indiana.

Kokomo, March 14.—The sixteenth annual meeting of the Northern Indiana Teachers' association, to be held in this city March 31 and April 1 and 2, will probably eclipse all former annual gatherings of the association. The local committee has already received assurances that more than 2,000 teachers will be present.

Sold Town Bonds.

Morristown, Ind., March 14.—The town board has sold $3,000 worth of bonds to a Cleveland firm. These bonds are 10-year 6 per cent bonds, and brought a premium of $297. This places the bonded indebtedness of the town at only $700 below the 2 per cent limit. The money is to be used to complete the street improvements begun last spring.

Mrs. Westerfield Dead.

Anderson, Ind., March 14.—Mrs. Westerfield, wife of the late Dr. Westerfield, president of the Indiana spiritualists, and known as the father of western spiritualism, died at her home in this city late Saturday. She was widely known as the "Mother of Western Spiritualism."

Company of Young Ladies Organized at Nicholasville, Ky., For Military Duty. Nicholasville, Ky., March 15.—A military company consisting entirely of girls of the Jessamine institute and this town has been formed here and will offer its services to the United States government the instant war with Spain is declared. They are willing to do whatever service is demanded of them, whether it be to shoulder rifles and do picket duty, to act as spies or to do duty as nurses. All they demand is that they be regularly enrolled and attached to some division and regiment of the army just as a company of men would be. They call themselves the "Maine Avengers."

Zoar Society Will Divide Its Property. New Philadelphia, O., March 14.—Lewis Zimmerman, treasurer of the Zoar society of this county, has announced that it will be dissolved as soon as three disinterested parties can make a division of the property. Amputated His Foot.

Seattle, Wash., March 14.—Steamer Noyo, from Alaska, brought down several of the crew of the steamer White-law, which was destroyed by fire at Skagway. Among her passengers was E. J. Chattanooga, March 14.—A conference of railway trainmen is being held in this city at which the grand chiefs of the engineers, firemen, conductors and trainmen are in attendance.

$2,500 Job and No Tears to Shed.

John P. Green, an Ohio politician of some note, not long ago was appointed to a fairly good place in one of the departments at Washington. At home Green is a criminal lawyer and is known by his success in influencing the feelings of the jury. He weeps natural tears at the right time, reads his hair and does other things which successful lawyers do. His department position pays $2,500 a year. Green told his Ohio friends that he earned as much at home from his practice. They thought he ought to have had something better. "Of course I ought," said Green, "and I hope to get something better, but let me tell you this, the $2,500 I get now comes a good deal easier than the $2,500 I earned at home. I tell you, this thing of shedding tears and caring your hair before a jury is no easy business. It will wear any man out. If I had to keep at it much longer, it would surely break down my constitution. You don't know what it means to me to get that $2,500 without tears. Between $2,500 with tears as a practicing member of the bar and $2,500 without tears in the employ of the government I choose the latter every time." — Augusta (Ga.) Chronicle.

A REDUCTION ALL ALONG THE LINE.

The success that we have met with by reducing the price of our cabinet photographs to one dollar per dozen, has determined us to continue for thirty or sixty days longer, making cabinets on glossy paper equal in style, finish and durability to those made by other photographers at a much higher price.

We have also determined to make the platinum or dead finish cabinet photos (by some called carbonettes) at $2.00 to $2.50 per dozen and guaranteed them to be equal to any made in Seymour at $3.50 to $4.00 per dozen.

Don't be deceived by the cry of cheap materials and work, for we all use the same kind of printing out paper, and tone in the same kind of gold and aristocratic platinum baths. Wash our prints in the same kind of water and card and burnish them in the same way. We desire to call attention to our new velvet gloss cabinets at $1.50 per dozen that by many are preferred to the higher priced platinum. We invite you to call and examine our work and then if you desire to pay higher prices for no better work, it is your privilege to do so.

The funeral of the late Hon. Jason B. Brown Sunday afternoon showed that the deceased had numerous friends, not only here at home but in other part of the state. The forenoon trains brought delegations from all directions. A special train was run from Bedford bringing over the members of the Bedford bar and about fifty other friends.

From 9 o'clock a. m. to 1 o'clock p. m. the body lay in state at the Methodist church, in charge of the city officials where it was viewed by hundreds of people.

At 2 o'clock the funeral cortege moved from the residence towards the Presbyterian church. The members of the local bar together with forty or fifty visiting attorneys marched at the head of the procession. The honorary pall bearers were F. M. Triassal, of Chicago, Chas. L. Jewett, of New Albany, Frank B. Burke and M. Z. Stannard, of Jeffersonville, A. G. Smith, of Indianapolis, Judge Applewhite, of Brownstown, Judge W. K. Marshall, and B. F. Price, of Seymour. The active pall bearers were Attorneys O. H. Montgomery, T. M. Homan and Carl Wood, of this city, Judge Willard New and Lincoln Dixon, of North Vernon and Senator Joseph Shea, of Scottsburg.

The services at the church were conducted by Rev. J. T. Charlton assisted by Rev. J. M. Baxter, and commanded the closest attention throughout. Not half the vast crowd could gain admittance to the church.

At the conclusion of the services a vast throng accompanied the remains to Riverview where they were placed in the vault.

The presence of so many friends from a distance who attended the funeral was evident of the high esteem in which Mr. Brown was held by those with whom he came in contact in public life.

There were present from Bedford, Judge W. H. Martin and Attorneys Smith, Owen, Alexander, Crooke, Boruff, Palmer, Lowe, Zuring, Pierson, Giles, Brooks, and Col. C. C. Matson, and about fifty others.

From New Albany, Chas. L. Jewett and John Willman

From Jeffersonville, M. C. Stannard, Frank B. Burke, P. C. Donovan and Nathan Sparks.

From North Vernon, Judge New and Attorneys Dixon, Overmyer, Burt New Webster Dixon. From Brownstown, Judge Applewhite, John Durnest, Alex Greger, Will Phifer, Frank Falk, and C. A. Robertson.

From Scottsburg, Senator Shea, C. W. Cruson, Geo. V. Cain, and J. L. Rutherford.

From Indianapolis, A. G. Smith, and J. L. Riley. From Crothersville, Attorneys Kattman and Cox and W. H. Thomas and H. H. Price from Old Town, and W. H. Edwards from Mitchell, and many others whose names we were unable to get.

LETTER FROM TEXAS.

An Interesting Letter from Charles L. Thomas.

The REPUBLICAN has a letter from Charles L. Thomas, written from San Antonio, Texas. After a delay of one week at Louisville on account of the death of Mrs. Thomas's father, they went via Ill. Central to New Orleans, having a delightful trip. When they arrived in New Orleans, Mr. Thomas says:

"The streets were crowded with people waiting for Rex as he was at that time just entering the city. We soon found we had made a mistake in stopping over at that time. The hotels and in fact the whole town, think it their privilege during Mardi Gras to rob the visitors. We were directed to the Grumewald Hotel and what they asked for a room was about ten times their regular price. As I would not pay the price the clerk took me behind the desk and made a confidential (?) rate. Then I made one which was satisfactory. We missed part of the parade but what we saw of it was good. I would advise our Seymour friends not to visit New Orleans during Mardi Gras week unless they have friends to stay with, unless they want to pay from $5 to $15 a day for a room and double prices for meals.

We left N. O. over the Southern Pacific for San Antonio, which took us through some of the best sugar parishes. The cane was something new to us. On many of the big plantations we saw as many as 40 and 50 teams plowing. We passed through some nice plantations, too.

"San Antonio is a quiet city of about 50,000 population, made up chiefly of Americans, Mexicans, Negroes and Indians. In the Mexican quarters one can get the original 'hot tomile' and chile which I understand is an original Mexican dish.

"The climate here is good but the city is too dirty to be a good health resort. The markets are well supplied with all kinds of vegetables. Strawberries are selling for 10 to 15 cents a box and nice tomatoes from 20 to 40 cents a basket.

"San Antonio is a wide open town. Saloons and stores are open seven days in the week. Lotteries and chance games run on Sunday just the same as other days in the week.

"Mexican dollars are worth 48 cents here. But I understand you can buy them for 45 cents at the border. When I go down there I will tell you something about Mexico, their money and how far it will go.

"For the Ill. Central railroad and their accommodating passenger agent, Mr. Fowler, I want to speak a word. Being delayed at Louisville the time limit of our tickets had expired, but when I explained the situation to Mr. Fowler, the limits were extended and stop over arranged as requested and everything else done to make our trip pleasant.

"We shall go from here down to the City of Mexico."

A REDUCTION ALL ALONG THE LINE.

The success that we have met with by reducing the price of our cabinet photographs to one dollar per dozen, has determined us to continue for thirty or sixty days longer, making cabinets on glossy paper equal in style, finish and durability to those made by other photographers at a much higher price.

We have also determined to make the platinum or dead finish cabinet photos (by some called carbonettes) at $2.00 to $2.50 per dozen and guaranteed them to be equal to any made in Seymour at $3.50 to $4.00 per dozen.

Don't be deceived by the cry of cheap materials and work, for we all use the same kind of printing paper, and tone in the same kind of gold and artist platinum baths. Wash our prints in the same kind of water and card and burnish them in the same way. We desire to call attention to our new velvet gloss cabinets at $1.50 per dozen that by many are preferred to the higher priced platinum. We invite you to call and examine our work and then if you desire to pay higher prices for no better work, it is your privilege to do so.

OUTINGS IN CALIFORNIA.

The Grandest Country Under the Sun for Outdoor Pastimes

When one desires an "outing" for health for the enjoyment of the beauty and grandeur and of scenery, or for sporting, he can more than satisfy himself in California. During more than eight months of the year open air life is entirely agreeable, and except for recreation even a tent is unnecessary. No spots there are "postponed on account of the weather," and Mother Nature holds out a welcoming hand to any one who will commune with her.

It is not strange then that "all California takes an outing." The residents of the valleys seek the coast for its ocean breezes and for bathing, boating and fishing that they may enjoy, or they go to the high Sierras for the cool, invigorating mountain air.

The sportsman can also have his fill. If he is a disciple of Isaac Walton he will find stream and lake and sea yielding him an ample reward for his skillful efforts. Game is also abundant. The deer, the bear—a grizzly if wanted—and smaller game swarm in the woodlands, and the man who cannot satisfy himself with an outing in California, must be hard indeed to please.

Long limit low rate tickets are sold to California via any of the Southern Pacific Company's three routes: Shasta, Ogden or Sunset, and may be purchased to read in one direction via any of these returning the same or either of the others. For information regarding rates and various routes to California call upon or address any agent of the Southern Pacific Company, or W. G. Neimeyer, Gen'l Western Agent, 238 Clark St., Chicago, Ill.

MAVIL CONSTRUCTION.

Engine and Fire Room Temperatures on a Warship.

The great internal heat that rendered the Amphitrite inefficient was due to lack of provision for ventilation in the engine and boiler spaces. These regions became so hot that little useful work could be done in them, and the lack of air was such as to actually ruin the furnace draft, smoke coming out freely from the holes in the furnace doors. Aside from two small ash hoist tubes in the central part of the fireroom and a small escape hatch forward, there were no openings from the fireroom to the outer air.

The boilers reached nearly to the iron main deck of the vessel, and as the air above them and between the deck beams had no escape it became greatly heated and lay roasting in those spaces. It was impossible for a man to go on the gratings behind the upper parts of the boilers after they had been under steam a few hours, though the main and auxiliary stop valves were there. A board of officers that reported on temperatures in the vessel got at this place only by introducing a thermometer on the end of a long pole, and this thermometer, when fished out and taken to a place where it could be read, showed 203 degrees.

The superstructure containing the cabin and wardroom was directly above the engine and boiler rooms, with a light wooden floor laid over the iron main deck. At sea, with the doors closed, this habitation became exactly like a frying pan on a hot stove lid. The smoke pipe, partly uncovered for alleged ventilating purposes, passed through the center of the wardroom and by vigorous radiation contributed its full share to the general discomfort. The deck, in spite of its wooden sheathing, was so hot as to be painful, and I hesitate to say from memory the temperatures the board reported as being usual in the rooms, in bureau drawers, on the wardroom table and in other parts of the officers' quarters. It was as high as 112 degrees, and I think greater. Sleep was only a period of unconsciousness, induced by utter exhaustion, and was without restful quality.

The fireroom temperature was never below 150 degrees and often above 170, while the engine room ranged closely about 150 degrees. For the first 24 hours the men stood it well, but on the second day seven succumbed to the heat and were put on the sick list, one of them nearly dying. Before the voyage was ended 28 had been driven to seek medical attendance.

On the evening of the fourth day our men had literally fought with fire to a finish and had been vanquished. The watch on duty broke down one by one and the engines, after lumbering along slower and slower, actually stopped for lack of steam. The ship was allowed to drift inshore on the tide and was finally brought to an anchor in St. Simon's sound. Though a warship of formidable characteristics and sent on this distant service, it is doubtful if the Amphitrite could have gone into action at that time or have steamed 100 miles farther to save herself.—F. M. Bennett, U. S. N., in Cassier's Magazine.

Milton's Wives and Daughters.

Of Milton's three wives and his relations with them enough has been written. It was a hard thing to be Milton's wife or Milton's daughter. He was stern, he was austere, he was self-centered; his impeccable strength was purchased by a sublime and monotonous egoism, which is the name they give to selfishness in poets. Very chill must have been the life of his girls in that Puritan house, reading to the inwrapped Puritan father from languages they did not understand and taking down from his lips poetry they understood still less. Milton found them undutiful. Poor little "undutiful" daughters! Fathers had terrible conceptions of duty in those days. Did any one ever want to know Milton? Did any one ever want to know Shakespeare? Doubtless there are readers of the Exeter Hall class who would have yearned for the godly company of the "great Christian poet." But, on the whole, how thankful one should be that Shakespeare was not a "Christian poet!"—Adams.

ONE OF TWO WAYS.

The bladder was created for one purpose, namely, a receptacle for the urine, and as such it is not liable to any form of disease except by one of two ways. The first way is from imperfect action of the kidneys. The second way is from careless local treatment of other disease.

CHIEF CAUSE.

Unhealthy urine from unhealthy kidneys is the chief cause of bladder troubles. So the womb, like the bladder, was created for one purpose, and if not doctored too much is not liable to weakness or disease, except in rare cases. It is situated back of and very close to the bladder, therefore any pain, disease or inconvenience manifested in the kidneys, back, bladder or urinary passage is often, by mistake, attributed to female weakness or womb trouble or some sort. The error is easily made and may be as easily avoided. To find out correctly, set your urine aside for twenty-four hours; sediment or settling indicates kidney or bladder trouble. The mild and extraordinary effect of Dr. Kiefer's Swamp Root, the great kidney and bladder remedy is soon realized. If you need any medicine you should have the best. At druggists fifty cents and one dollar. You may have a sample bottle and a pamphlet, each sent free by mail, upon receipt of three two-cent stamps to cover cost of postage on the bottle. Mention the R. Kiefer & Co., Birmingham, N. Y. The proprietors of this paper guarantee its impartiality in this advertisement.

The superstructure containing the cabin and wardrobe was directly above the engine and boiler rooms, with a light wooden floor laid over the iron main deck. At sea, with the doors closed, this habitation became exactly like a frying pan on a hot stove lid. The smoke pipe, partly uncovered for alleged ventilating purposes, passed through the center of the wardrobe and by vigorous radiation contributed its full share to the general discomfort. The deck, in spite of its wooden sheathing, was so hot as to be painful, and I hesitate to say from memory the temperatures the board reported as being usual in the rooms, in bureau drawers, on the wardrobe table and in other parts of the officers' quarters. It was as high as 112 degrees, and I think greater. Sleep was only a period of unconsciousness, induced by utter exhaustion, and was without restful quality.

The fire room temperature was never below 150 degrees and often above 170, while the engine room ranged closely about 150 degrees. For the first 24 hours the men stood it well, but on the second day seven succumbed to the heat and were put on the sick list, one of them nearly dying. Before the voyage was ended 28 had been driven to seek medical attendance.

On the evening of the fourth day our men had literally fought with fire to a finish and had been vanquished. The watch on duty broke down one by one and the engines, after lumbering along slower and slower, actually stopped for lack of steam. The ship was allowed to drift inshore on the tide and was finally brought to an anchor in St. Simon's sound. Though a warship of formidable characteristics and sent on this distant service, it is doubtful if the Amphitrite could have gone into action at that time or have steamed 100 miles farther to save herself.—F. M. Bennett, U. S. N., in Cassier's Magazine.

Milton's Wives and Daughters.

Of Milton's three wives and his relations with them enough has been written. It was a hard thing to be Milton's wife or Milton's daughter. He was stern, he was austere, he was self-centered; his impeccable strength was purchased by a sublime and monotonous egoism, which is the name they give to selfishness in poets. Very child must have been the life of his girls in that Puritan house, reading to the unwrapped Puritan father from languages they did not understand and taking down from his lips poetry they understood still less. Milton found them undutiful. Poor little "undutiful" daughters! Fathers had terrible conceptions of duty in those days. Did any one ever want to know Milton? Did any one ever want to know Shakespeare? Doubtless there are readers of the Exeter Hall class who would have yearned for the godly company of the "great Christian poet." But, on the whole, how thankful one should be that Shakespeare was not a "Christian poet!"—Academy.

ONE OF TWO WAYS.

The bladder was created for one purpose, namely, a receptacle for the urine, and as such it is not liable to any form of disease except by one of two ways. The first way is from imperfect action of the kidneys. The second way is from careless local treatment of other diseases.

CHIEF CAUSE.

Unhealthy urine from unhealthy kidneys is the chief cause of bladder troubles. So the womb, like the bladder, was created for one purpose, and if not doctored too much is not liable to weakness or disease, except in rare cases. It is situated back of and very close to the bladder, therefore any pain, disease or inconvenience manifested in the kidneys, back, bladder or urinary passage is often, by mistake, attributed to female weakness or womb trouble of some sort. The error is easily made and may be as easily avoided. To find out correctly, set your urine aside for twenty-four hours, a sediment or settling indicates kidney or bladder trouble. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Dr. Kiefer's Swamp Root, the great kidney and bladder remedy is soon realized. If you need any medicine you should have the best. At drug stores fifty cents and one dollar. You may have a sample bottle and a pamphlet, both sent free by mail, upon receipt of three two-cent stamps to cover cost of postage on the bottle. A REDUCTION ALL ALONG THE LINE.

The success that we have met with by reducing the price of our cabinet photographs to one dollar per dozen, has determined us to continue for thirty or sixty days longer, making cabinets on glossy paper equal in style, finish and durability to those made by other photographers at a much higher price.

We have also determined to make the platinum or dead finish cabinet photos (by some called carbonettes) at $2.00 to $2.50 per dozen and guaranteed them to be equal to any made in Seymour at $3.50 to $4.00 per dozen.

Don't be deceived by the cry of cheap materials and work, for we all use the same kind of printing out paper, and tone in the same kind of gold and aristo platinum baths. Wash our prints in the same kind of water and card and burnish them in the same way. We desire to call attention to our new velvet gloss cabinets at $1.50 per dozen that by many are preferred to the higher priced platinum. We invite you to call and examine our work and then if you desire to pay higher prices for no better work, it is your privilege to do so.

LARGELY ATTENDED.

Was the Funeral of the Late Ex-Congressman Jason B. Brown.

The funeral of the late Hon. Jason B. Brown Sunday afternoon showed that the deceased had numerous friends, not only here at home but in other parts of the state. The forenoon trains brought delegations from all directions. A special train was run from Bedford bringing over the members of the Bedford bar and about fifty other friends.

From 9 o'clock a. m. to 1 o'clock p. m. the body lay in state at the Methodist church, in charge of the city officials where it was viewed by hundreds of people.

At 2 o'clock the funeral cortege moved from the residence towards the Presbyterian church. The members of the local bar together with forty or fifty visiting attorneys marched at the head of the procession. The honorary pall bearers were F. M. Trissal, of Chicago, Chas. L. Jewett, of New Albany, Frank B. Burke and M. Z. Stannard, of Jeffersonville, A. G. Smith, of Indianapolis, Judge Applewhite, of Brownstown, Judge W. K. Marshall, and B. F. Price, of Seymour. The active pall bearers were Attorneys O. H. Montgomery, T. M. Homan and Carl Wood, of this city, Judge Willard New and Lincoln Dixon, of North Vernon and Senator Joseph Shea, of Scottsburg.

The services at the church were conducted by Rev. J. T. Charlton assisted by Rev. J. M. Bixter, and commended the closest attention throughout. Not half the vast crowd could gain admittance to the church.

At the conclusion of the services a vast throng accompanied the remains to Riverview where they were placed in the vault.

The presence of so many friends from a distance who attended the funeral was evidence of the high esteem in which Mr. Brown was held by those with whom he came in contact in public life.

There were present from Bedford, Judge W. H. Martin and Attorneys Smith, Owen, Alexander, Crooke, Boruff, Palmer, Lowe, Zarring, Pierson, Giles, Brooks, and Col. C. C. Matson, and about fifty others.

From New Albany, Chas. L. Jewett and John Willman.

From Jeffersonville, M. C. Stannard, Frank B. Burke, P. C. Donovan and Nathan Sparks.

From North Vernon, Judge New and Attorneys Dixon, Overmyer, Burt New Webster Dixon. From Brownstown Judge Applewhite, John Darmest, Alex Greger, Will Phifer, Frank Falk, and C. A. Robertson.

From Scottsburg, Senator Shea, C. W. Cruseon, Geo. V. Cain, and J. L. Rutherford.

From Indianapolis, A. G. Smith, and J. L. Riley. From Crothersville, Attorneys Kattman and Cox and W. H. Thomas and H. H. Price from Old Town, and W. H. Edwards from Mitchell, and many others whose names we were unable to get.

Believe us when we say that we shall ever hold you in grateful remembrance.

LETTER FROM TEXAS.

An Interesting Letter from Charles L. Thomas.

The REPUBLICAN has a letter from Charles L. Thomas, written from San Antonio, Texas. After a delay of one week at Louisville on account of the death of Mrs. Thomas's father, they went via Ill. Central to New Orleans, having a delightful trip. When they arrived in New Orleans, Mr. Thomas says:

"The streets were crowded with people waiting for Rex as he was at that time just entering the city. We soon found we had made a mistake in stopping over at that time. The hotels and in fact the whole town, think it their privilege during Mardi Gras to rob the visitors. We were directed to the Grumewald Hotel and what they asked for a room was about ten times their regular price. As I would not pay the price the clerk took me behind the desk and made a confidential (?) rate. Then I made one which was satisfactory. We missed part of the parade but what we saw of it was good. I would advise our Seymour friends not to visit New Orleans during Mardi Gras week unless they have friends to stay with, unless they want to pay from $5 to $15 a day for a room and double prices for meals.

"We left N. O. over the Southern Pacific for San Antonio, which took us through some of the best sugar parishes. The cane was something new to us. On many of the big plantations we saw as many as 40 and 50 teams plowing. We passed through some nice plantations, too.

"San Antonio is a quiet city of about 50,000 population, made up chiefly of Americans, Mexicans, Negroes and Indians. In the Mexican quarters one can get the original 'hot tomble' and chile which I understand is an original Mexican dish.

"The climate here is good but the city is too dirty to be a good health resort. The markets are well supplied with all kinds of vegetables. Strawberries are selling for 10 to 15 cents a box and nie tomatoes from 20 to 40 cents a basket.

"San Antonio is a wide open town. Saloons and stores are open seven days in the week. Lotteries and chance games run on Sunday just the same as other days in the week.

"Mexican dollars are worth 48 cents here. But I understand you can buy them for 45 cents at the border. When I go down there I will tell you something about Mexico, their money and how far it will go.

"For the Ill. Central railroad and their accommodating passenger agent, Mr. Fowler, I want to speak a word. Being delayed at Louisville the time limit of our tickets had expired, but when I explained the situation to Mr. Fowler, the limits were extended and stop over arranged as requested and everything else done to make our trip pleasant.

"We shall go from here down to the City of Mexico." C. L. THOMAS.

I have been afflicted with rheumatism for fourteen years and nothing seemed to give any relief. I was able to be around all the time, but constantly suffering. I had tried everything I could hear of and at last was told to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which I did, and was immediately relieved and in a short time cured. I am happy to say that it has not since returned.—Josh. Edgar, Germantown, Cal. For sale by C. W. Milhous.

OUTINGS IN CALIFORNIA.

The Grandest Country Under the Sun for Outdoor Pastimes

When one desires an "outing" for health or the enjoyment of the beauty and grandeur of scenery, or for sporting, he can more than satisfy himself in California. During more than eight months of the year open air life is entirely agreeable, and except for recreation even a tent is unnecessary. No sports there are "postponed on account of the weather," and Mother Nature holds out a welcoming hand to any one who will commune with her.

It is not strange then that "all California takes an outing." The residents of the valleys seek the coast for its ocean breezes and for bathing, boating and fishing that they may enjoy, or they go to the high Sierras for the cool, invigorating mountain air.

The sportsman can also have his fill. If he is a disciple of Izak Walton he will find stream and lake and sea yielding him an ample reward for his skillful efforts. Game is also abundant. The deer, the bear—a grizzly if wanted—and smaller game swarm in the woodlands, and the man, who cannot satisfy himself with an outing in California, must be hard indeed to please.

Long limit low rate tickets are sold to California via any of the Southern Pacific Company's three routes: Shasta, Ogden or Sunset, and may be purchased to read in one direction via any of these returning the same or either of the others. For information regarding rates and various routes to California call upon or address any agent of the Southern Pacific Company, or W. G. Neimeyer, Gen'l Western Agent, 238 Clark St., Chicago, Ill.

Unhealthy urine from unhealthy kidney is the chief cause of bladder troubles. So the womb, like the bladder, was created for one purpose, and if not doctored too much is not liable to weakness or disease, except in rare cases. It is situated back of and very close to the bladder, therefore any pain, disease or inconvenience manifested in the kidneys, back, bladder or urinary passage is often, by mistake, attributed to female weakness or womb trouble or some sort. The error is easily made and may be as easily avoided. To find out correctly, set your urine aside for twenty-four hours, sediment or settling indicates kidney or bladder trouble. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp Root, the great kidney and bladder remedy is soon realized. If you need any medicine you should have the best. At druggists fifty cents and one dollar. You may have a sample bottle and pamphlet, both sent free by mail, upon receipt of three two-cent stamps to cover cost of postage on the bottle. Mention the R. K. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., the proprietors of this paper, guarantee its purity and its effectiveness in all cases of kidney and bladder trouble.

OF MILTON'S WIVES AND DAUGHTERS.

Of Milton's three wives and his relations with them enough has been written. It was a hard thing to be Milton's wife or Milton's daughter. He was stern, he was austere, he was self-centered; his impeccable strength was purchased by a sublime and monotonous egoism, which is the name they give to selfishness in poets. Very child must have been the life of his girls in that Puritan house, reading to the unwrapped Puritan father from languages they did not understand and taking down from his lips poetry they understood still less. Milton found them unprofitable. Poor little "unprofitable" daughters! Fathers had terrible conceptions of duty in those days. Did any one ever want to know Milton? Did any one ever want to know Shakespeare? Doubtless there are readers of the Exeter Hall class who would have yearned for the godly company of the "great Christian poet." But, on the whole, how thankful one should be that Shakespeare was not a "Christian poet!"—Academy.

ONE OF TWO WAYS.

The bladder was created for one purpose, namely, a receptacle for the urine, and as such it is not liable to any form of disease except by one of two ways. The first way is from imperfect action of the kidneys. The second way is from careless local treatment of other disease.

WE ARE ASSERTING IN THE COURTS OUR RIGHT TO THE EXCLUSIVE USE OF THE WORD "CASTORIA," AND "PITCHER'S CASTORIA," AS OUR TRADE MARK.

I, DR. SAMUEL PITCHER, of Hyannis, Massachusetts, was the originator of "PITCHER'S CASTORIA," the same that has borne and does now bear the fac-simile signature of *Chas. H.
